<sup>v</sup> Latvia: The legislation stipulates that part of nursery is compulsory education, 7 is the age at which children must start compulsory basic education.

<sup>vii</sup> Lithuania: The legislation stipulates 7 as the age at which children must start compulsory schooling. The legislation provides for starting compulsory schooling at the age of 6. The usual practice, however, is for children to start primary school at 7 years of age.

<sup>viii</sup> First year starts at the age of 6

<sup>ix</sup> High school also includes technical education

Romania The legislation stipulates 6 as the age of at which children start compulsory education, with the possibility for the parents to postpone the beginning of year 1 by one year.

The last 2 years of compulsory education (years 9 and 10) can be followed either in high school (lower cycle of high school) or in arts and trades school (vocational education). Graduates of arts and trades schools can continue their studies in a completion year, at the end of which they have the right to enter the upper cycle of high school. At the end of high school, the graduates of both paths (4 years direct path or 5 years progressive path) may take the Bacalaureate examination.

Croatia The legislation stipulates 7 as age at which children must start compulsory education (primary). The legislation provides for starting compulsory education at age of 6. The usual practice is for children to start primary education at 7 years of age.
